

News from the Arrival Hall at Vienna Airport: Relay, BILLA Corso, Burger King and Costa Coffee will open by spring of 2023

Several new shop openings will take place in the arrival hall of Vienna Airport in the near future, offering new brands to travellers. In December 2022, the international magazine and travel goods store Relay will begin operating in the arrival hall. BILLA Corso, Burger King and Costa Coffee will also open up their doors by the spring of 2023.

“Together with our longstanding airport partners Lagardère Travel Retail and Rewe Group, we are expanding our brand offering up until the spring of 2023 for travellers. With Billa Corso, Burger King, Costa Coffee and Relay, we are offering something catering to every taste, from an Austrian premium supermarket to international restaurants and shops with top brands,” states Julian Jäger, Joint CEO and COO of Vienna Airport.

Relay kicks off – BILLA Corso, Burger King and Costa Coffee will follow

Everything you need for travelling can be found in the newly opened Relay Shop in the arrival hall starting on 7 December 2022. Books, newspapers and magazines from all over the world, travel accessories, fresh snacks and beverages will be available in the store covering an area of 133m<sup>2</sup>. Relay is represented at airports and train stations in fourteen countries across the globe and popular focal point for purchasing all kinds of travel accessories. The new shop will be operated by Lagardère Travel Retail, a longstanding retail and gastronomy partner of Vienna Airport.

The international store operator will also introduce other shopping and restaurant offerings in the arrival hall. By the spring of 2023, Burger King will open a new restaurant alongside the globally well-known coffee shop concept Costa Coffee at the location of the present McDonald’s restaurant, which will close down at the end of the year. Furthermore, at the beginning of 2023 a modern and well-stocked BILLA Corso store operated by the REWE Group will be offering its products on the floor space currently occupied by Spar Gourmet, which will be refurbished starting at the beginning of December 2022.
