

Vienna Airport: International Electronics Retailer “Capi” Opens New Store at the Airport

An expanded shopping offering is now available at Vienna Airport. Effective immediately, passengers will be able to take advantage of an extensive offering of electronic devices and accessories in the new “Capi” electronics shop located by the F gates. Customers can select from premium brands and the company’s own “Mitone” brand in a shop covering an area of more than 100 m². Capi ranks as one of the leading electronics retailers at airports around the world.

“Smart phones, tablets and similar technological gadgets are an essential part of our everyday life today, as well as when we are travelling. The latest trends and state-of-the-art products are now available at Vienna Airport from the new specialty electronics retailer Capi. It ranks as one of the world’s leading electronics experts at airports”, says Julian Jäger, Member of the Management Board of Flughafen Wien AG, who is delighted to welcome the innovative electronics shop.

The shopping experience of travellers at Vienna Airport is now being expanded thanks to the new electronics shop Capi. On an area exceeding 100 m², state-of-the-art electronics such as game consoles for use on the move, cameras and video devices, MP3 players and headphones as well as tablets and smart phones are offered for sale. The product range also includes “Mitone” products i.e. Capi’s own brand. The experts for electronics devices is located in Terminal 3 by the F gates.

Capi: International provider of state-of-the-art electronics

Capi was founded in the year 1894, and as part of B&S International B.V. is headquartered in Hoofddorp, Netherlands. The Dutch company has already been represented as an electronic retailer at airports across the globe since 1957. Capi is a co-founder of the shopping mall located at Amsterdam Airport Schiphol, and has been operating in the airport retailing sector since then. At the present time Capi operates a total of 36 shops at eleven airports in Europe and South Africa as well as franchises in the Ukraine and China.
