

“Aviation-Event 2023 VIE“: Business conference with international aviation experts at Vienna Airport on 9 November 2023

International aviation experts, airport representatives, airlines, service providers and technology companies will gather together at Vienna Airport on 9 November 2023 for the “Aviation-Event 2023 VIE”. Exciting keynote speakers await the people attending, for example Claudia Plakolm, State Secretary for Youth and Generations in the Austrian Federal Chancellery, Olivier Jankovec, Director General of ACI Europe, Charles Schlumberger, Lead Air Transport Specialist of The World Bank, Francesco Sciortino, COO of Austrian Airlines and Julian Jäger, Member of the Management Board of Flughafen Wien AG. The event serves as a discussion platform for opportunities and challenges in aviation as well as market trends, digitalization and sustainability. The Aviation-Event 2023 VIE will be held in the AirportCity Space, the state-of-the-art event centre at Vienna Airport.

“International industry discussions at Vienna Airport: prominent experts will discuss global developments in aviation at the “Aviation-Event 2023 VIE” held in the AirportCity Space, our state-of-the-art event location. Following the COVID-19 pandemic, all signs once again point to growth, with climate protection and digitalisation being top priorities. We look forward to a lively exchange of views with interested guests on current developments in the aviation industry,” explains Julian Jäger, Joint CEO and Member of the Management Board of the airport operating company Flughafen Wien AG.

Marcel Riwalsky, CEO, Aviation-Event: “VIE is the aviation and media highlight at the end of the year 2023, featuring a well-founded, expert outlook for the aviation year 2024 provided by Vienna Airport Management Board member Julian Jäger and many other top aviation decision makers as well as journalists.”

High-profile event for aviation enthusiasts: “Aviation-Event 2023 VIE” in Vienna

As a specialised international event, the Aviation-Event will bring together prominent international experts and representatives of the aviation sector to meet in Vienna. The focal points of the meeting include the development of the aviation sector after the COVID-19 crisis, a look at the European, CEE and Middle East aviation markets as well as the future path towards CO₂-neutral flight traffic using sustainable aviation fuels. The Aviation-Event is an exclusive platform for aviation conferences promoting an open dialogue on an executive level between the aviation and aerospace industries, the business community and political decision makers. All relevant information on the event can be found at www.aviation-event.de.
