

New at Vienna Airport: Fit Fabrik opens fitness studio

Things are moving at the Airport City. In September 2015 a fitness center, Fit Fabrik Plus, will be opened directly at Vienna Airport. An agreement has already been signed between Flughafen Wien AG and the company Fit Fabrik. The fitness studio with an area of 1,700 m² will be located in the public space of the Office Park 3 building. All 20,000 employees at the airport, along with neighboring residents and passengers will be given simple access to a new, high quality sports facility in their immediate vicinity.

“The Airport City is growing, and is offering an increasing number of new services for people at the site. Now we can make a new and very attractive sports facility available to 20,000 employees, our passengers and all sports enthusiasts in the area,” says Günther Ofner, Member of the Managing Board of Flughafen Wien AG, who is pleased with the new offering at the airport.

“We now operate eight fitness studios in Austria including the new gym at the airport, and others will flow. Our high standards combined with reasonable prices perfectly fulfills the needs of consumers”, states Michael Zrost, Managing Director of Fit Fabrik Holding GmbH, commenting on the dynamic development of his company.

Comprehensive fitness offering on 1,700 m²

The gym will be located on the third floor of Office Park 3 in the Airport City at Vienna Airport. Sports enthusiasts will be able to make use of the most advanced devices of the premium brand “Technogym”, a functional cross-fitness zone, group fitness, Power Plates and a sauna in a studio boasting a size of 1,700 m². Strength and endurance training, personal training, nutrition plans and group fitness trainings (aerobics, indoor cycling, Zumba, Pilates and much more) are designed to ensure quick training success.

Opening in September 2015 – Advanced sales at special terms and conditions as of July 15, 2015

The new fitness studio will be opened at the airport in September 2015. Membership including fitness training, group fitness, sauna and Power Plates is available starting € 39.90 per month. All members can park for free in Car Park 4 for up to two hours during their training. As of July 15, 2015, advance sales will begin at the site, offering special terms and conditions for membership.
