

EGR

We have specialized in the distribution of telecommunications and mobile communications products for more than 25 years. By working together with our well-known sales partners T-Mobile, Telering, A1, UPC and Drei, we became the most successful sales company in Austria.

We are searching for a shop assistant (m/w) / Full-time for our hallo hallo Shop (Telecommunication) at the Vienna International airport!

Your main tasks

- customer service and sale of mobile phones and mobile accessories
- in order to acquaint the customers with our products
- independent cash and stock management
- actively work to achieve our business goals (sales goals, customer satisfaction, etc.)
- the variety of tasks and the capability to serve our international and domestic customers best

Our expectations/requirements

- ideally, a background within sales, customer service or promotion
- well-maintained, serious appearance and excellent communication skills
- excellent knowledge of German, very good English skills and any other foreign language is a plus
- ability to work independently and highly service oriented as well as experience in MS-Office

What we offer

- attractive working place at the Vienna Airport
- the variety of tasks and meeting our many international customers
- the possibility to use your excellent language skills on a daily basis
- fixed employment and working hours: Mon - Fri between 6 am and 6 pm
- pleasant working atmosphere
- performance-oriented commission system

If you are interested, please send your complete and detailed application, including your CV, a cover letter and a photo to bewerbung@egr.at. We look forward to meeting you!

A minimum income for this position has been established for 1.443,32 EUR brutto per month based on full-time job with willingness of overpayment, plus bonuses.

Contact
EGR Vertriebs- und HandelsgmbH
Fr. Lenka Schranz
bewerbung@egr.at

Wir schaffen Kunden.