SSP opens the very first “Jamie Oliver’s Bar” in Austria on April 27, 2018

Next Friday, on April 27, 2018, the new “Jamie Oliver’s Bar” will be officially opened at Vienna Airport. The British celebrity chef Jamie Oliver came personally to visit Vienna Airport for fine tuning during the preparation phase. After greeting his teams at “Jamie’s Italian” and “Jamie’s Deli”, he satisfied himself with the “Jamie Oliver’s Bar” which will soon go into operation, accompanied by Julian Jäger, Member of the Management Board of Flughafen Wien AG, and Jan Kamp, Director Business Development SSP. The official opening is scheduled for April 27, 2018.

“Jamie Oliver’s high-quality cuisine relies on regionality and healthy food. Thanks to the expansion of the Jamie Oliver food and drink offering at Vienna Airport, passengers will experience an even broader culinary diversity”, says Julian Jäger, Member of the Management Board of Flughafen Wien AG.

Snacks & cocktails à la Jamie Oliver: “Jamie Oliver’s Bar”

High quality snacks and a selection of alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks will be offered to passengers within the context of the new “Jamie Oliver’s Bar” concept of the British celebrity chef Jamie Oliver. Travellers can enjoy a choice of beers, wine and long drinks as well as numerous snacks, for example the chicken schnitzel club sandwich, at the rustic urban style bar. “Jamie Oliver’s Bar” will be open to passengers at the F and G gates starting on April 27, 2018.

High-quality culinary highlight: Jamie Oliver’s offering spanning more than 800 m²

The take-away concept “Jamie’s Deli” and the popular restaurant “Jamie’s Italian” both opened at Vienna Airport last year.
